(c) whether any efforts are being made to make special arrangement for the backward and rural areas of the country; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) to (d) It has been the constant endeavor of the Government to expand the coverage of All India Radio (AIR) and Doordarshan (DD) to uncovered and under-served areas, including backward and rural areas.

All AIR/DD terrestrial transmitters cover backward and rural areas within their respective coverage zones. During 10th Five Year Plan period, AIR have commissioned 38 transmitters and 13 transmitter projects are technically ready for commissioning, while DD have set up 145 transmitters so far. Apart from this, 134 radio transmitters and 29 TV transmitter projects in various parts of the country are presently under implementation.

In addition, multi-channel coverage with a bouquet of 33 TV and 12 radio channels has been provided through "DD Direct-Plus"—free-to-air DTH service of Doordarshan, launched in December, 2004 to provide coverage to hitherto uncovered and under-served areas. It is possible to receive DTH signals anywhere in the country (except Andaman & Nicobar Islan is) with the help of a small sized dish receive unit.
